SECTION 1. Purpose. Pursuant to the provisions of Government Code sections 87300 et seq., EAST BAY DISCHARGERS AUTHORITY OF ALAMEDA COUNTY (the “EBDA”) hereby adopts the following Conflict of Interest Code. Nothing contained herein is intended to modify or abridge the provisions of the California Political Reform Act of 1974.

SECTION 2. Incorporation of Regulation.

The California Fair Political Practices Commission adopted a regulation (Title 2 California Code of Regulations section 18730) which contains the terms of a standard conflict of interest code which can be incorporated by reference in an agency’s code. Therefore, the terms of Title 2 California Code of Regulations section 18730 and any amendments to it duly adopted by the California Fair Political Practices Commission are hereby incorporated herein by this reference. The provisions of Title 2 California Code of Regulations section 18730 and the provisions below, designating officials and employees and establishing disclosure categories, along with the applicable sections of the California Political Reform Act, shall constitute the Conflict of Interest Code of EBDA.

SECTION 3. Designated Positions and Disclosure Categories. The positions listed in this Section 3 are designated positions. Officers and employees holding these positions are designated public officials, and are deemed to make, or participate in the making of, decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on an economic interest of the designated public official. Each designated public official shall file an annual statement disclosing that public official’s interests in investments, interests in real property, and business positions held or received during the previous calendar year, as required by the disclosure category applicable to that public official.

Disclosure Category 2: Persons in this category shall disclose all of the following interests: investments, business positions held or received during the previous calendar year, interests in real property within EBDA’s jurisdiction*, and income—including loans, gifts and travel payments—from all sources.

Consultant Disclosure Category 3: Consultants shall disclose all of the interests required to be disclosed pursuant to Disclosure Category 1, subject to the following limitation: The General Manager may determine in writing that a particular consultant, although a “designated position,” is hired to perform a range of duties that is limited in scope and thus is not required to fully comply with the disclosure requirements of the broadest disclosure category, but instead must comply with more tailored disclosure requirements specific to that consultant. Such written determination shall include a description of the consultant’s duties and, based upon that description, a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements. The District Manager’s determination is a public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this conflict of interest code.
